

Prof., PhDr., CSc. Zuzana Stanislavová
University of Presov, Slovakia

General information

Fields of Research

Literature for children and youth (Slovak literature for children and youth, literature for children and youth translated into Slovak) from 1960 until now – poetological, developmental, educational aspects, literary didactics

Honours and Memberships

National Literary Fund Award, Slovak section of IBBY, Bibiana, International house of Art for children Trojruža 2011 for literary-critical and literary-historical promotion of the Slovak literature for children and youth values.

International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) – Certificate of Honour for Translation.
London, United Kingdom, 2012

Member of the Slovak Writers Association, member of the Children's Book Friends Board – Slovak section of IBBY.

Education and Qualifications

• ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS AND ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Master study (1969 – 1974) –High School Teaching (Slovak and German linguistics), P.J.Šafárik University in Košice (Slovak Republic)

CSc. (= Ph.D., 1983– 1991) – Theory and history of Slovak literature (research focus: literature for children and youth), Literary Institute of Slovak Academy of Sciences Bratislava, Slovak Republic

Associated professor (1995) – Theory and history of Slovak literature (research focus: literature for children and youth), Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra, Slovak Republic

Professor (2000) – Slovak literature, University of Prešov, Slovak Republic

Professional experience

- CURRENT POSITION

Professor (Faculty of Education, University of Prešov, Slovak Republic, Head of the Centre of Research on Children's Language and Culture)

Research work

The guarantor of Ph.D. study programmes at the Faculty of Education, University of Prešov.

One of the most important researchers in the field of research on contemporary literature for children and youth in the Slovak Republic.

The author of fourteen research publications, fifteen books and anthologies; author of more than one hundred articles published in scientific journals and anthologies (Slovak Republic, Czech Republic, Austria, England, Poland, Bulgaria and Ukraine).